10Days 8Nights Russia / Moscow / St Peterburg / Murmansk

Normal Price

~~RM 18, 988~~

PROMOTION PRICE

from RM 15, 988 / person

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

FLIGHT

- China Southern Airlines & Aeroflot - Russian Airlines Flight Schedule:
- Day 01 Kuala Lumpur / Guangzhou CZ 3048 (1445/1910)
- Day 02 Guangzhou / Moscow SU 221 (1150/1650)
- Day 03 Moscow / Murmansk SU 1324 (1700/1940)
- Day 06 Murmansk / Saint Petersburg SU 6346 (2050/2240)
- Day 09 Saint Petersburg / Moscow / Guangzhou SU 6216 (1400/1530) + SU 220 (1950/1010 +1)
- Day 10 Guangzhou / Kuala Lumpur CZ 365 (1835/2250)

ATTRACTIONS

- This comprehensive 10-day triple-city journey spans Moscow, Saint Petersburg, and Murmansk. It seamlessly blends Russia's grandest imperial treasures--like the Kremlin, the Hermitage Winter Palace, and Catherine Palace--with raw Arctic exploration at the edge of the world in Teriberka.

GOURMET

- King Crab & Sea Urchin Feast: A premium seafood spread in Murmansk.
- Vladimir Palace Dinner: Fine dining paired with an authentic Russian folk performance.
- Atmospheric Dining: Unique meals at an Arctic Ocean View restaurant and a Cathedral View restaurant.
- Local Specialties: Traditional Sami reindeer meat meals and a cozy Arctic hot pot.

EXPERIENCE

- Double Aurora Chasing: Two dedicated night safaris led by expert aurora hunters and professional photographers.
- Deep Tundra Safaris: High-speed snowmobile rides, reindeer sledding, and husky dog sledding.
- Polar Elements: Polar ice floating (drifting) thrills and a traditional snow banana boat ride.

HOTELS

ACCOMMODATION

- Accommodations: Fully upgraded to quality 4-star downtown hotels for the entire 8-night stay.
- Guided Support: Accompanied by a Malaysian Tour Leader alongside professional Mandarin-speaking local guides.
- Convenient Transport: Full economy flights (via China Southern and Aeroflot) and private overseas tourist coaches are included

DAILY ITINERARY

Day 1 Kuala Lumpur / Guangzhou CZ 3048 (1445/1910)

HOTEL

- 4* Guangzhou Airport Hotel

Day 2 Guangzhou / Moscow SU 221 (1150/1650)

Breakfast	Lunch	Dinner	Hotel
Hotel	Own Expenses	Local Cuisine	4* Moscow Hotel

Day 3 Moscow -/ Murmansk SU 1324 (1700/1940)

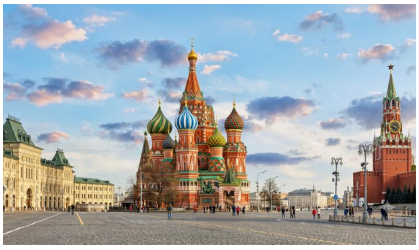
Red Square & Surrounding Sights (Exterior)

ed Square is the historical, cultural, and political heart of Moscow and the ultimate symbol of Russia. Originally a 15th-century marketplace, this massive open plaza is a UNESCO World Heritage site surrounded by architectural marvels.

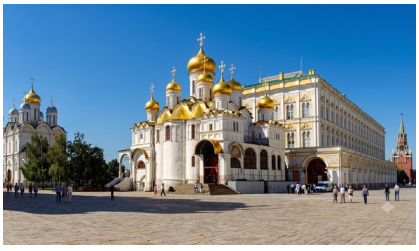


Saint Basil's Cathedral (Exterior)

Perhaps the most recognizable building in Russia, this 16th-century masterpiece is famous for its vibrant, multi-colored onion domes. Commissioned by Ivan the Terrible to commemorate a military victory, its unique architectural design looks straight out of a fairy tale.

GUM Department Store (Entry)

GUM Department Store is a historic and elegant shopping mall in Moscow's Red Square, known for its stunning glass-roofed architecture, luxury boutiques, and variety of restaurants and cafes.



Kremlin (Entry)

The Moscow Kremlin is a historic, fortified complex in the heart of Moscow, overlooking the Moskva River, Red Square, and the Alexander Garden. It features four palaces, four cathedrals, and a wall with 20 towers, and serves as the official.

Moscow Metro (Entry)

These exterior structures serve as a visual prelude to what lies beneath. Passing through these doors and descending the escalators leads commuters into massive, deep-level stations decorated like museums

Aurora Hunter + Photographer

Breakfast	Lunch	Dinner	Hotel
Hotel	Lunch：Local Cuisine	Dinner：Own Expenses	Murmansk 4* Hotel

Day 4 Murmansk - Teriberka

Teriberka

Arctic Throne (Exterior)

The Arctic Throne is a striking art installation located along the coast of Teriberka. It was created in 2021 for the World Cup of Strength Extreme competition. Made from locally sourced driftwood, the throne stands over four metres tall and.

The Abandoned Ship (Exterior)

This abandoned fishing vessel rests quietly on the beach of Teriberka, weathered by years of Arctic winds, snow, and waves. Set against the vast Barents Sea, its solitary form reflects the village's fishing heritage and creates a dramatic northern landscape.

Lonely Swing(Exterior)

The Lonely Swing is a distinctive photography spot located along Teriberka's vast Arctic coastline. Facing the endless Barents Sea and surrounded by open wilderness, sea winds, and dramatic polar scenery, it offers visitors a feeling of freedom and solitude at.

Ship Graveyard (Exterior)

The Ship Graveyard of Teriberka lies near the mouth of the river where it meets the Barents Sea. Scattered along the shore are the weathered remains of abandoned fishing vessels, recalling the village's once-thriving fishing industry and its later decline.

Aurora Chasing Tour (Included)

Breakfast	Lunch	Dinner	Hotel
Hotel	Lunch：Arctic Ocean View Restaurant	Dinner：Local Cuisine	Murmansk 4* Hotel

Day 5 Murmansk- Sami Village

Sami Ethnic Village (Entry)

The Sami Ethnic Village is an open-air ethnographic museum dedicated to preserving the culture, history, and daily life of the Sami people--the indigenous Finno-Ugric population of the Kola Peninsula.

Reindeer sleigh ride (Included)

Snow banana boat (Included)

Ice Drifting Experience (Included)

Dog sledding (Included)

Snowmobile (Included)

Breakfast	Lunch	Dinner	Hotel
Hotel	Lunch：Traditional Sami reindeer meat meal	Dinner：Kingcrab & sea urchin feast	Murmansk 4* Hotel

Day 6 Murmansk - St. Peterburg SU 6346 (2050/2240)

Murmansk Port & Lenin Nuclear Icebreaker (Entry)

The Murmansk Commercial Seaport and the permanently docked Lenin Nuclear Icebreaker form the industrial and historical heart of Murmansk. As the world's largest city north of the Arctic Circle, Murmansk relies entirely on this ice-free port, and the iconic Lenin.

Arctic Landmark Monument (Exterior)

The Murmansk Arctic Landmark Monument stands at the entrance to the city and serves as a symbolic welcome to this Arctic destination. Rising approximately 20 metres, the monument is crowned by a small sailing ship set within a metal ring,.

Lighthouse Monument (Exterior)

The Lighthouse Memorial in Murmansk was erected in 2002 to commemorate sailors who lost their lives during peacetime. The lighthouse symbolizes hope, homecoming, and the quiet waiting of families on shore, while honouring those who never returned from the sea.

Alyosha Statue (Exterior)

Officially named the Monument to the Defenders of the Soviet Arctic during the Great Patriotic War--is a colossal World War II memorial located in the northern port city of Murmansk, Russia. Standing far above the Arctic Circle, it is one.

Breakfast	Lunch	Dinner	Hotel
Hotel	Lunch：Local Cuisine	Dinner：Local Cuisine	St. Peterburg 4* Hotel

Day 7 St. Peterburg

Hermitage Museum & Winter Palace (Interior)

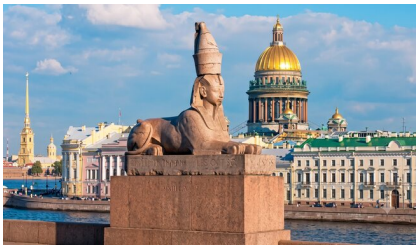
Winter Palace is a former imperial residence of the Russian tsars, now part of the Hermitage Museum, located at Palace Square, which is the city's main historic square known for grand architecture and major public events

Palace Square (Exterior)

Palace Square is the grand, historic heart of Saint Petersburg. As the city's primary public square, its massive exterior space has served as the stage for monumental world events, from the glittering military parades of the Russian Empire to the.

Peter and Paul Fortress (Interior).

The Peter and Paul Fortress is the birthplace of Saint Petersburg, founded by Peter the Great in 1703. While walking the fortress grounds is free, stepping inside its historic buildings requires a ticket and reveals the dramatic, contrasting heart of.



Sphinxes (Exterior)

Sphinxes on Universitetskaya Embankment are a pair of ancient Egyptian sphinx statues brought from Luxor in the 19th century, now displayed along the Neva River, symbolizing strength and serving as a unique link between Egypt and Russia's cultural history.

Old Port Light houses of Vasilievsky Island (Exterior)

Located on the Spit of Vasilievsky Island, the Rostral Columns are among Saint Petersburg's most iconic historic landmarks. Built in the early 19th century, these two 32-metre-high columns once served as lighthouses guiding ships into the old port. Their shafts.

Breakfast	Lunch	Dinner	Hotel
Hotel	Lunch：Local Cuisine	Dinner：Folk performance at Vladimir Palace	St. Peterburg 4* Hotel

Day 8 St. Peterburg

Catherine Palace (Entry)

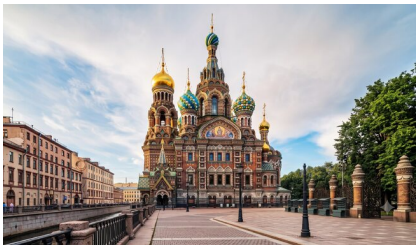
The Catherine Palace is the jewel of Tsarskoye Selo (Pushkin), renowned worldwide for its over-the-top luxury, brilliant blue-and-gold Baroque facade, and its legendary missing treasure. It served as the primary summer residence of the Russian tsars.

Catherine Park (Entry)

Catherine Park is the sprawling, breathtakingly beautiful imperial park surrounding the famous Catherine Palace. Located in the town of Pushkin (formerly Tsarskoye Selo), about 25 kilometers south of Saint Petersburg, it is a UNESCO World Heritage site and a masterpiece.

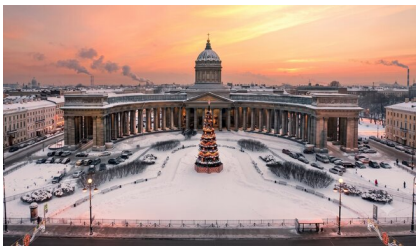
Putin's Birthday Wooden Cottage Restaurant (Included)

The traditional Russian restaurant Podvorye is located outside Saint Petersburg and is renowned for its rustic wooden-cottage architecture and authentic Russian cuisine. The restaurant became famous after Vladimir Putin celebrated his 48th birthday here in 2000. Visitors can enjoy traditional.



Church of the Savior on Spilled Blood (Exterior)

The Church of the Savior on Spilled Blood (also known as the Church of the Resurrection of Christ) is one of Saint Petersburg's most breathtaking and iconic landmarks.



Kazan Cathedral (Entry)

Located in Saint Petersburg, Russia, the Kazan Cathedral (also known as the Cathedral of Our Lady of Kazan) is one of the city's most striking architectural and historical landmarks.

Free Shopping on Nevsky Prospekt

Nevsky Prospekt is Saint Petersburg's most famous avenue and the centre of the city's cultural, commercial, and social life. Lined with historic buildings, department stores, boutiques, bookstores, restaurants, and cafés, it is an ideal place for leisurely shopping. Visitors can.

Breakfast	Lunch	Dinner	Hotel
Hotel	Lunch：Local Cuisine	Dinner：Local Cuisine	St. Peterburg 4* Hotel

Day 9 St. Peterburg - Moscow - Guangzhou SU 6216 (1400/1530) + SU 220 (1950/1010 +1)

Bronze Horseman (Exterior)

The Bronze Horseman is a famous equestrian statue of Peter the Great in Saint Petersburg, symbolizing his founding of the city and Russia's imperial power, and is one of the city's most iconic landmarks.

Saint Isaac's Cathedral (Exterior)

Saint Isaac's Cathedral is one of Saint Petersburg's grandest and most iconic architectural landmarks, as well as the largest Russian Orthodox cathedral in the city. It is renowned for its magnificent gilded dome, monumental granite columns, and richly detailed decoration.

Decembrists' Square (Senate Square) (Exterior)

Decembrists' Square, now officially known as Senate Square, is one of the oldest historic squares in Saint Petersburg. In December 1825, the Decembrists launched an uprising here against imperial autocracy, making the square an important site in Russian history. The.

Breakfast	Lunch	Dinner	Hotel
Hotel	Lunch：Own Expenses	Dinner：Own Expenses	Overnight On Board

Day 10 Guangzhou - Kuala Lumpur CZ 365 (1835/2250)

Breakfast	Lunch	Dinner	Hotel
Breakfast：NIL	Lunch：NIL	Dinner：NIL	