Day 1 Kuala Lumpur → Guangzhou → Qingdao CZ 366 (0805/1215) + CZ 5899 (1430/1735)

Assemble at Kuala Lumpur International Airport. Upon arrival in Qingdao, meet the professional tour guide for airport pick-up.

Dinner: Chuange Fish Dumpling Cuisine

Hotel: 5★ Qingdao. Galaxy Bay Hotel Or Similar

Day 2 Qingdao

Tsingtao Beer Museum (Including Beer Tasting + Complimentary Peanuts)

The Tsingtao Beer Museum, built with an investment of 28 million RMB, covers an exhibition area of over 6,000 sqm. Housed in the century-old brewery and equipment, the museum highlights Tsingtao Beer's century-long history and brewing process. It integrates cultural history, production, entertainment, shopping, and dining, offering visitors a blend of knowledge, fun, and interaction.

Badaguan Scenic Area

Also known as the "Exhibition of International Architecture," featuring Russian, English, French, and other European-style villas. Surrounded by blooming crabapple and peach blossoms, some streets also have cherry blossoms alongside old houses. With "red tiles, green trees, blue sea, and sky," walking here feels like stepping into a European spring postcard.

No. 2 Bathing Beach

Fine sandy beach, gentle sea breeze, cherry and crabapple blossoms along the shore, matched with blue seawater—extremely soothing.

Guangxingli

A classic example of Qingdao's old courtyard houses, built in a distinctive "回" layout. Walking the stone-paved lanes offers both the charm of old Qingdao and springtime beauty, with fewer crowds.

Dabaodao Historic Area

A preserved century-old neighborhood with vintage cobblestone streets and old-style street lamps. Colorful hydrangea and bougainvillea bloom along the lanes—perfect for photos, combining "heritage + fashion + spring scenery."

Zhanqiao Pier

A century-old pier stretching into the sea like a jade ribbon, connecting Qingdao's past and present. From here, you can see Little Qingdao Island's white lighthouse, the red-tile old town with Taiping Mountain and the TV tower, as well as naval vessels at the Naval Museum pier.

Breakfast: Hotel // Lunch: Chinese Cuisine // Dinner: Chinese Cuisine

Hotel: 5★ Qingdao. Galaxy Bay Hotel Or Similar

Day 3 Qingdao ~ Yantai

Changyu Castel Chateau (including wine tasting + DIY brandy bottle)

One of China's landmark wineries, combining vineyards, century-old underground wine cellars, traditional workshops, and romantic European architecture.

Experience winemaking stories and enjoy a hands-on activity: blend and take home your own mini bottle of brandy.

Fisherman's Wharf

The only natural island connected to land in Yantai city, with three sides surrounded by sea. Famous for its "Spirited Away" style railway extending into the ocean. Perfect spot for anime-inspired photos, especially at high tide.

Popular Photo Spot – Suochengli Historic Area

One of Yantai's oldest neighborhoods, blending ancient architecture with modern cultural creativity. With 600 years of history, it preserves marks from the Ming and Qing dynasties to treaty-port times. Blue bricks, winding alleys, and heritage buildings make it a hotspot for culture and photography.

Breakfast: Hotel // Lunch: Chinese Cuisine // Dinner: Local Cuisine

Hotel: 5★ Yantai. Four Points by Sheraton Or Similar

Day 4 Yantai ~ Penglai ~ Weifang

Penglai Pavilion Scenic Area

One of China's Four Famous Pavilions, known as a "fairyland on earth." Includes Penglai Water City, Xianren Bridge, and Sanxian Mountain, blending Taoist culture with coastal legends.

Eight Immortals Sculpture

Located in Penglai's Eight Immortals Crossing Scenic Area, vividly depicting Taoist immortals with their symbolic treasures—a popular spot for photos and mythology lovers.

Weifang Kite Square

Features a white kite-shaped steel-frame sculpture called "Yuanbiao," symbolizing the International Kite Federation. From all angles, it resembles a butterfly floating in the sky.

Breakfast: Hotel // Lunch: Eight Immortals Banquet // Dinner: Local-style pancake with scallion

Hotel: 5★ Weifang. La Quinta by Wyndham Or Similar

Day 5 Weifang ~ Jinan ~ Zhangqiu

Baotu Spring Park

The most famous of Jinan's "Three Major Springs," known as "the first spring under heaven." Famous for crystal-clear gushing water, surrounded by traditional pavilions and scenic spots.

Daming Lake

Formed by converging springs, covering 57.7 hectares with an average depth of 2–3m. One of Jinan’s top three scenic spots and a core part of the 5A-rated “First Spring Scenic Area.”

Qushuiting Street

Historic alley where spring water flows through the street. Residents still use it for washing and daily life. Flanked by traditional houses, stone bridges, and old shops.

Black Tiger Spring (Including Big Bowl Tea Experience)

Located at the foot of Jiefang Pavilion. Water rushes from the cliffside cave, hitting rocks with a roar like a tiger. Since the Ming dynasty, a Black Tiger Temple once stood above.

Kuanhouli

A restored historic district showcasing “Old Jinan” with grey-tile houses, stone alleys, folk shops, and former residences of famous figures.

Zhangqiu. Mingshui Ancient City

With over 1,000 years of history, known as the “Little Spring City.” Features Baima Spring system and other scenic waters. Also the hometown of poet Li Qingzhao and Meng Luochuan, founder of Ruifuxiang (a time-honored silk brand).

Breakfast: Hotel // Lunch: Chinese Cuisine // Dinner: Chinese Cuisine

Hotel: Yian Inn, Mingshui Ancient City Or Similar

Day 6 Zhangqiu ~ Qufu

Qufu. Temple of Confucius

Located in Qufu, built in 478 BC (the year after Confucius’ death). Covering 16 hectares, with 466 halls and 9 courtyards, it is the largest and best-preserved Confucian temple complex in China.

Nishan Sacred Scenic Area (Included Buggy)

Located at Nishan, the birthplace of Confucius. A large cultural tourism complex featuring the Confucius statue, Nishan Academy, Great Hall of Confucianism, and spectacular night light-and-water shows.

Breakfast: Hotel // Lunch: Chinese Cuisine // Dinner: Chinese Cuisine

Hotel: 5★ Nishan. Luyuan Town Hotel Or Similar

Day 7 Qufu ~ Heze / Speed Train / Qingdao

Caozhou Peony Garden

The world's largest peony park, with all major color series and flower types, and over 1,000 century-old trees. April is peak blooming season, with "Wei Purple" and "Yao Yellow" in full glory.

Take the Speed Train from Heze to Qingdao.

Breakfast: Hotel // Lunch: Heze Peony Banquet // Dinner: Seafood Hotpot Feast

Hotel: 5★ Qingdao. Galaxy Bay Hotel Or Similar

Day 8 Qingdao

Qingdao Mangrove Resort World

Located in Huangdao District, covering 800,000 sqm. Includes Gothic wedding chapel, German Town Square, European Art Gallery, hot spring center, cinema, kids' adventure park, and more—an all-in-one seaside holiday complex.

Zhongshan Park Cherry Blossom Viewing

In spring, cherry blossoms bloom along the avenue, forming the city's most enchanting flower-viewing scene.

"Most Beautiful Metro Line" - Blue Valley Line

Take the "moving observation deck across mountains and sea." Each station offers different flower views, perfect for spring sightseeing.

May Fourth Square & Olympic Sailing Center Light Show

Breakfast: Hotel // Lunch: Chinese Cuisine // Dinner: Seafood Buffet Dinner

Hotel: 5★ Qingdao. Galaxy Bay Hotel Or Similar
